

Recently, a student from one of CI Karen Conley's quilting retreats, emailed us at Quiltworx.com to relay her experience from the retreat, along with her new found paper piecing success ~ Summer 2013

Please extend my thanks to Judy! I recently attended a quilt retreat with one of her instructors, Karen Conley. I have had no luck with paper piecing in the past (I have taken classes without success!). I was discouraged and a bit reluctant, but signed up anyway! What a treat to learn from such a wonderful teacher! I not only was able to paper piece (and not lose sleep over it!), but I have several more projects lined up. Karen was absolutely wonderful and I feel great to be able to add paper piecing to my quilting skills!

Thank you so much!
